Definitions

Child safe entity, as per s10 of the Child Safe Organisation Act 2024 QLD, is an entity -

- a) That provides –
  - i. Services specifically for children; or
  - ii. Facilities specifically for use by children who are under the supervision of the entity; and
- b) That is either –
  - i. Mentioned in schedule 1; or
  - ii. Prescribe by regulation

(1) However, an individual is not a child safe entity unless the individual carries on a business as an entity mentioned in subsection (1), including, for example, as a sole trader or partner in a partnership under the Partnership Act 1891, section 5.<sup>1</sup>

Child safe standards, as per s9 of the Child Safe Organisation Act 2024 QLD, are the following standards applying to an entity –

- a) Child safety and wellbeing is embedded in the entity’s organisational leadership, governance and culture;
- b) Children are informed about their rights, participate in decisions affecting them and are taken seriously.
- c) Families and communities are informed and involved in promoting child safety and wellbeing;
- d) Equity is upheld and diverse needs respected in policy and practice;
- e) People working with children are suitable and supported to reflect child safety and wellbeing values in practice;
- f) Processes to respond to complaints and concerns are child-focused;
- g) Staff and volunteers of the entity are equipped with the knowledge, skills and awareness to keep children safe through ongoing education and training;
- h) Physical and online environments promote safety and wellbeing and minimise the opportunity for children to be harmed;
- i) Implementation of the child safe standards is regularly reviewed and improved;
- j) policies and procedures document how the entity is safe for children.<sup>2</sup>

Student, is any child or young person of any age, enrolled or seeking enrolment at Islamic College of Brisbane.

Universal Principle, in implementing and complying with the child safe standards, a child safe entity must provide an environment that promotes and upholds the right to cultural safety of children who are Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islander persons (the universal principle).<sup>3</sup>

QFFC, Queensland Family and Child Commission

Objectives

Islamic College of Brisbane will implement and comply with the child safe standards and understand they may be required to give an authorised officer of the Queensland Family and Child Commission (QFCC) information about the school’s compliance. In implementing and complying with the child safe standards, Islamic College of Brisbane will provide an environment that promotes and upholds the right to cultural safety of children who are Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islander persons (the universal principle). The school will have regard to Guidelines made by the (QFCC) in implementing and complying with the child safe standards and universal principle<sup>4</sup>.

As per the Guidelines, this policy outlines the ways in which Islamic College of Brisbane actions and prioritises the safety and wellbeing of students. Rules and expectations regarding child safe practices are outlined for staff, volunteers and community members with the aim of establishing a child safe environment<sup>5</sup>.

This policy will:

- Set out the school’s expectations, practices, and approaches in relation to each of the Child Safe Standards, including the Universal Principle
- Be displayed for public access on the school’s website and at the school’s office
- Cover acceptable and unacceptable child to child, and child to adult interactions
- Describe the school’s commitment to equity, inclusion and cultural safety and how the organisation recognises, responds and respects these factors.

Principles

The implementation of, and compliance with, the child safe standards and universal principle by Islamic College of Brisbane are to be based on the following fundamental principles:

- (a) Child safe entity’s, including Islamic College of Brisbane, are responsible for continuously improving the ways in which, in their operations—
  - (i) the safety of children is promoted; and
  - (ii) child abuse is prevented; and
  - (iii) allegations of child abuse are properly responded to;<sup>6</sup>
- (b) The Child Safe Standards are not a simple checklist. They encourage child safe entities to think about how their day-to-day work protects children’s rights and safety.<sup>7</sup>

Responsibilities

Islamic College of Brisbane is responsible for developing and implementing this Student Safety and Wellbeing Policy and related policies and procedures to ensure it fulfils its CSS and Universal Principle obligations.

All governing body members, staff and volunteers at Islamic College of Brisbane are responsible for acting in compliance with this policy and related policies and procedures.

Student safety and wellbeing is embedded in <<school names'>> leadership, governance and culture.<sup>8</sup>

Statement of Commitment

Islamic College of Brisbane is committed to taking all reasonable steps to promote the safety and wellbeing of students enrolled at the school and their protection from foreseeable harm. We act in accordance with the Child Safe Organisations Act 2024 (QLD) and implement the Child Safe Standards to create a safe, inclusive, and accountable environment. We listen to children, value their views, and support them to participate in decisions that affect them.

Islamic College of Brisbane is committed to the safety and inclusion of all children, including those from diverse cultural backgrounds, children with disability, LGBTQIA+ children, and children who may be experiencing vulnerability. We also make a clear commitment to the cultural safety of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and to providing an environment where their identities, cultures, and connections to Country are respected and upheld.

Risk Management

Islamic College of Brisbane implements robust risk management processes to prevent, identify, and mitigate risks to children, and is committed to the monitoring of risk to the Safety of students on an ongoing basis.

Islamic College of Brisbane will utilise various risk management tools including Risk Management Framework, Work Health & Safety Policy and Notifiable Incident Reporting Procedure to assist in this process and will keep appropriate records of decisions made and actions taken in relation to risks to children.

Code of Conduct

At the Islamic College of Brisbane we expect our employees to conduct themselves as follows:

School Staff and volunteers are expected to always behave in ways that promote the safety, welfare and well-being of our students. Staff must actively seek to prevent harm to students, and to support those who have been harmed.

Specific responsibilities include:

- Staff and volunteers should avoid situations where they are alone in an enclosed space with a student.
- When physical contact with a student is a necessary part of the teaching/learning experience, staff and volunteers must exercise caution to ensure that the contact is appropriate and acceptable. Staff must always advise the student of what they intend on doing and seek their consent.

- Staff must not develop a relationship with any student that is, or that can be interpreted as having a personal rather than a professional interest in a student.
- Staff and volunteers must not have a romantic or sexual relationship with a student.
- Staff and volunteers must treat all students, colleagues and community members with respect, fairness and dignity, regardless of culture, race, ethnicity, language, religion, ability, gender, sexual orientation, or background.
- Staff and volunteer must not engage in any form of racism, discrimination, harassment, or exclusionary behaviour. This includes verbal, written, online or behavioural actions that demean, stereotype or disadvantage and individual or group.
- Staff and volunteers must actively challenge racist or discriminatory behaviour when it occurs and follow school procedures for reporting such incidents.
- Staff and volunteers must promote a culturally safe, inclusive and respectful environment by valuing diversity, acknowledging, cultural differences, and modelling culturally responsive behaviour at all times.

Information Sharing & Recordkeeping

Staff and volunteers understand their obligations in information-sharing and maintaining accurate, secure records about child safety concerns, disclosures, and responses.

2. Student Voice

Students are informed about their rights, participate in decisions affecting them and are taken seriously.<sup>9</sup>

Islamic College of Brisbane is committed to championing the voices of children and young people, ensuring they have genuine agency in matters that affect them. We listen to students in age-appropriate and culturally appropriate ways and create safe, structured opportunities for them to express their views.

Islamic College of Brisbane uses the curriculum and educational programs to actively promote positive peer relationships and reduce student isolation by embedding learning experiences that strengthen social skills, empathy and respectful behaviours. Through age-appropriate lessons and whole-school wellbeing programs, students are also provided with access to sexual abuse prevention education that builds their understanding of personal safety, protective behaviours and where to seek help. Together, these curriculum-based approaches support safer, more connected and more informed students.

Islamic College of Brisbane ensures that all staff and volunteers are consistently attuned to indicators of harm and abuse and are equipped to recognise when a student may need support. Age-appropriate and trauma-informed processes are in place to help students communicate their concerns safely and confidently, and staff actively respond to these disclosures with care and professionalism in accordance with Islamic College of Brisbane Reporting Concerns of Harm and Abuse Policy.

3. Family and Community

Families and the community are informed and involved in promoting student safety and wellbeing.<sup>10</sup>

Islamic College of Brisbane recognises the vital role families and communities play in the safety, wellbeing, and education of students. We value strong, respectful, and collaborative partnerships with families and the broader school community.

We intentionally build inclusive relationships, particularly with First Nations families, local community members, and Elders. We honour Country and embed an Acknowledgement of Country in our practices to ensure students understand the importance of knowing and respecting the land on which we learn.

4. Equity and Diversity

Equity is upheld, and the diverse needs of students are respected in policy and in practice.<sup>11</sup>

Islamic College of Brisbane is committed to creating an inclusive, equitable environment where all students feel safe, respected, and supported. We actively work to remove barriers to participation and ensure our practices reflect cultural safety for all students.

This commitment is actioned through the following:

- Diverse Learning and Inclusive Education Policy and Flowchart
- Anti-Discrimination Policy
- Student Discipline Policy and Procedures

5. People

People working with students are suitable and supported to reflect student safety and wellbeing values in practice.<sup>12</sup>

Islamic College of Brisbane is committed to recruiting, selecting, training and managing employees in such a way that limits risks to students. In particular, Islamic College of Brisbane will:

- Ensure that its recruitment and selection procedures act to reduce the risk of harm to children from employees via:
  - Accurate position descriptions, including whether the successful applicant must be a teacher registered with the Queensland College of Teachers (who has been subject to relevant police and other safety checks),

whether a Blue Card is necessary for the successful applicant, the responsibilities and supervision associated with the position, the nature and environment of the service provided to students, and the experience and qualifications required by the successful applicant.

- Advertising the position with a clear statement about the college's commitment to safe and supportive work practices and identifying that candidates will be subject to a teacher registration check or Blue Card screening, a police check, referee checks, identification verification and the requirement to disclose any information relevant to the candidates' eligibility to engage in activities including children.
  - A selection process that includes assessing the application via an interview process and referee and other checks (as identified above) based on the accurate position description.
  - A probationary period of employment, which allows the school to further assess the suitability of the new employee and to act as a check on the selection process
- Ensure that its training and management procedures act to reduce the risk of harm to students from staff via:
    - Management processes that are consistent, fair and supportive
    - Performance management processes to help employees to improve their performance in a positive manner
    - Supportive processes for staff when they are experiencing challenges, such as mentoring, mediation, conflict resolution, coaching, additional training, and external support and counselling services
    - An induction program which thoroughly addresses the school's policies and procedures, particularly its expectations regarding student risk management and to assist staff to understand their role in providing a safe and supportive environment for students.
  - Training new and existing staff on an ongoing basis to enhance skills and knowledge and to reduce exposure to risks, as follows:
    - The school's policies and procedures
    - Identifying, assessing and minimising risks to students
    - Handling a disclosure or suspicion of harm to a child
  - Keeping a record of the training provided to staff.
  - Exit interviews to assist the school to identify broader issues of concern that may impact on the safety and wellbeing of students at the school.

6. Complaints

Processes to respond to complaints and concerns are child focused.<sup>13</sup>

Islamic College of Brisbane is committed to maintaining a student-focused approach to receiving and responding to complaints. Our Complaints Handling Policy and Procedure outlines how concerns can be raised, the roles and responsibilities of staff, and the processes used to respond to different types of matters. We ensure that all complaints are taken seriously, addressed promptly and thoroughly, and managed in line with our reporting, privacy and employment law obligations.

Any concerns, disclosures or allegations relating to harm or abuse of a student are managed under the school's Reporting Concerns of Harm or Abuse Policy (or equivalent), which sets out our mandatory obligations to act protectively and report to the appropriate authorities.

7. Skills and Knowledge

Staff and volunteers of the school are equipped with the knowledge, skills and awareness to keep students safe through ongoing education and training.<sup>14</sup>

The school will train its staff in processes relating to the health, safety and conduct of staff and students on their induction and will refresh training annually.<sup>15</sup>

8. Physical and Online Environments

Physical and online environments promote safety and wellbeing and minimise the opportunity for students to be harmed.<sup>16</sup>

Islamic College of Brisbane proactively identifies and mitigates risks within both the physical and online environments, ensuring that safety measures do not compromise students' privacy or healthy development. Staff and students use online platforms in line with the school's code of conduct and related policies, supporting a safe, respectful and well-managed digital learning environment.

For further details about how Islamic College of Brisbane manages risk see 1. Leadership and Governance above.

9. Continuous Improvement

Implementation of the child safe standards is regularly reviewed and improved.<sup>17</sup>

Islamic College of Brisbane is committed to fostering a culture of continuous improvement in child safety, wellbeing and cultural respect. We recognise that embedding the Child Safe Standards and Universal Principle is a continuing journey that requires ongoing commitment, regular review and continual strengthening of our practices.

Islamic College of Brisbane will:

- Review policies, procedures and practices regularly to ensure they remain effective, responsive and appropriate for the Islamic College of Brisbane community. This includes undertaking periodic audits, self-assessments and reflective practice to identify strengths and opportunities for improvement.
- Analyse available data including complaints and concerns to identify causes and systemic issues and use these insights to inform continuous improvement of policies, procedures and practices.

10. Policies and Procedures

Policies and procedures document how the school is safe for children.<sup>18</sup>

Islamic College of Brisbane has embedded its Statement of Commitment to Student Safety and Wellbeing in all relevant policies and procedures. Islamic College of Brisbane has made all relevant policies and procedures publicly available on its website, school intranet, parent portal and copies are available on request from the school office. Staff and volunteers are trained in implementing relevant policies and procedures regularly.
